Report

On 8th June 2023, a seminar titled "Opportunities in Armed Forces" was held in the Seminar Hall. The seminar aimed to provide NCC cadets with insights into the various opportunities available to them through their participation in the National Cadet Corps. The seminar was presided over by Dr. Shaju P P, and the welcome address was delivered by Ms. Tancy V S. The resource person for the event was Commander Mathew P Mathew, an experienced NCC officer.

Following the welcome address, Dr. Shaju P P, the president of the event, gave a brief introduction to the significance of the National Cadet Corps and its role in shaping the youth of the nation. He emphasized the values of discipline, leadership, and patriotism that NCC instills in its cadets.

Commander Mathew P Mathew took the stage and began his presentation by providing an overview of the National Cadet Corps, its objectives, and the values it instills in the cadets. He highlighted the three core components of NCC: Discipline, Unity, and Courage.

Following the presentation, an interactive session was conducted, allowing cadets to ask questions and seek clarifications. Cadets enthusiastically participated and raised queries related to eligibility criteria, application processes, and the experiences of previous NCC cadets who had availed themselves of the discussed opportunities.

The seminar "Opportunities in Armed Forces" provided NCC cadets with valuable insights into the various prospects available through their participation in the National Cadet Corps. Commander Mathew P Mathew effectively conveyed the significance of NCC in shaping the cadets' personal and professional lives.

Report

ED Club conducted a seminar on Entrepreneurship Awareness in association with the District Industrial Centre, Mananthavady.

It was a productive session that commenced with registration. Following that, Ms. Archana Anand (District Industrial Officer) extended a formal welcome to all attendees. Next, Ms. Priya (District Industrial Officer) delivered the President's speech, wherein she shared the opportunities available for new entrepreneurs. Subsequently, Mr. Reji Francis, Assistant Professor of the Department of Commerce at Mary Matha College, officially inaugurated the event. Ms. Tancy V S, Assistant Professor in the Department of Computer Science, facilitated the session.

Krishnendhu, a 3rd-year BCom student, delivered the vote of thanks. Afterward, the anticipated session commenced. The session was conducted by JCI trainer Mr. Lukman Areekode, who delivered a valuable talk on Entrepreneurship Awareness. The young minds blossomed under his guidance as he shared insights about the opportunities for new entrepreneurs. He delved into strategies for identifying niche markets, harnessing innovative ideas, and navigating the intricacies of startup ecosystems. Mr. Areekode elaborated on the significance of market research, effective networking, and building a robust business plan. His in-depth analysis of successful entrepreneurial ventures, along with real-world case studies, showcased the practical application of his guidance. The students provided positive feedback on the sessions.

Concluding the event, Arya Biju, also a 3rd-year BCom student, delivered the vote of thanks.

Report

ED Club conducted a seminar on Entrepreneurship Awareness in association with the District Industrial Centre, Mananthavady.

It was a productive session that commenced with registration. Following that, Ms. Archana Anand (District Industrial Officer) extended a formal welcome to all attendees. Next, Ms. Priya (District Industrial Officer) delivered the President's speech, wherein she shared the opportunities available for new entrepreneurs. Subsequently, Mr. Reji Francis, Assistant Professor of the Department of Commerce at Mary Matha College, officially inaugurated the event. Ms. Tancy V S, Assistant Professor in the Department of Computer Science, facilitated the session.

Krishnendhu, a 3rd-year BCom student, delivered the vote of thanks. Afterward, the anticipated session commenced. The session was conducted by JCI trainer Mr. Lukman Areekode, who delivered a valuable talk on Entrepreneurship Awareness. The young minds blossomed under his guidance as he shared insights about the opportunities for new entrepreneurs. He delved into strategies for identifying niche markets, harnessing innovative ideas, and navigating the intricacies of startup ecosystems. Mr. Areekode elaborated on the significance of market research, effective networking, and building a robust business plan. His in-depth analysis of successful entrepreneurial ventures, along with real-world case studies, showcased the practical application of his guidance. The students provided positive feedback on the sessions.

Concluding the event, Arya Biju, also a 3rd-year BCom student, delivered the vote of thanks.

DETAILED PROGRAMME CHART

TWO DAY NATIONAL SEMINAR ON IMPORTANCE OF CONSTITUTIONAL LITERACY IN PROTECTING DEMOCRACY  2024 JANUARY 23 & 24 10:00 am ONWARDS MARY MATHA ARTS AND SCIENCE COLLEGE  Organized by Department of Social Science Economics, Mary Matha Arts and Science College, Mananthavady  In association with Institute of Parliamentary Affairs (IPA), Government of Kerala, Thiruvananthapuram		IMPORTANCE OF CONSTITUTIONAL LITERACY IN PROTECTING DEMOCRACY Constitutional Literacy refers to a comprehensive understanding of country's constitution, including its principles, provisions and the rights and responsibilities it guarantees to its citizens. It is important because it empowers individuals to be informed and engaged participants in their country's governance. A well-informed population is essential for upholding the principles and values outlined in the constitution, thereby reinforcing the foundation of a robust and resilient democratic system. In the context of Indian democracy, constitutional literacy holds immense importance. It enables citizens to comprehend the principles of the constitution for promoting informed civic engagement. This knowledge enhances the individuals to protect their rights, demand accountability and actively participate in democratic processes. Constitutional literacy is a key tool for fostering a strong and inclusive democracy in India. Dr. Maria Martin Joseph Principal, Mary Matha Arts and Science College, Mananthavady. Dr. Biveesh U.C. SESSION 5 : DEMOCRACY AND CIVIC PARTICIPATION

The Session 4 of the Two Day National Seminar was done by Mr. Gokul M A, Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science, Mary Matha Arts and Science College, Mananthavady on the topic “Democracy and Civic Participation” was started at 2.00 pm. Ms. Ardra Philip, Assistant Professor, Department of Social Science Economics, Mary Matha Arts and Science College, Mananthavady was the moderator of the session. He talked about the History and Evolution of Democracy in India. He also discussed the role of civic participation in empowering democracy. He also explained that the public participation is more at grass root level or at local self-government level rather than at upper levels of government. It is because at grass root level citizens can participate in decision making. It was a session where students and teachers actively participated in discussion. The session ended up by 3.00 pm.
