Report

On June 8, 2023, the NCC Unit of Mary Matha Arts and Science College organized an impactful event called "Puneet Sagar Abhiyan." The event aimed to create awareness about the importance of environmental conservation, particularly focused on coastal areas. Two competitions, namely slogan writing and essay writing, were conducted to engage the participants and encourage them to express their thoughts on environmental issues.

The essay and slogan writing competition started at 2 pm. Participants were given the opportunity to express their thoughts, research, and propose solutions related to environmental challenges, with a specific focus on coastal conservation. The essay topics encompassed a wide range of issues, such as marine pollution, climate change, sustainable fishing, and coastal habitat preservation.

The participants demonstrated their knowledge, critical thinking, and writing skills through well-structured essays. They discussed the causes and consequences of environmental problems and offered innovative ideas and solutions to address them. The competition encouraged the students to think deeply about environmental issues and inspired them to become advocates for change.

The "Puneet Sagar Abhiyan" served as a reminder of the crucial role each individual can play in protecting our natural resources. The event fostered a sense of responsibility and encouraged the participants to become environmental stewards in their communities.

Report:

The Hindi Department of Mary Matha Arts and Science College, in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), organized a vibrant and culturally enriching Hindi Day Celebration on September 25th 2023. The event was rescheduled from its originally planned date on September 14th 2023. The celebration HINDI SAMAROH aimed to promote and celebrate the Hindi language and culture, fostering a sense of unity and diversity within our institution.

The program was skillfully coordinated by Ms. Harsha Varghese, Head of the Department, who played a significant role in organizing and managing the event. The event commenced with great enthusiasm as our respected Principal, Dr. Maria Martin Joseph, graced the occasion with her presence. Her inaugural address emphasized the importance of cultural diversity and linguistic harmony within our educational institution.

The heart of the 'Hindi Samaroh,' was the "Hindi Exhibition". An interactive Hindi Exhibition was organized, showcasing a wide range of exhibits that highlighted the evolution and significance of the Hindi language. The exhibition offered insights into the history of Hindi literature, celebrated Hindi authors and poets, Hindi games, traditional Hindi attire, North Indian cuisine, and the profound impact of Hindi cinema on our culture. Visitors were afforded the opportunity to delve into the language further through informative displays and engaging interactive activities."

The Hindi Day Celebration at Mary Matha Arts and Science College was a resounding success, fostering a sense of pride and appreciation for the Hindi language and culture among our students and staff. It served as a reminder of the rich linguistic and cultural tapestry that enriches our institution.

Hindi Department of Mary Matha Arts and Science College, Mananthavady, in association with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) organized a lecture titled "JAAGO PHIR EK BAAR" . The lecture was delivered by Dr. Manoj N., Professor at the Government College, Mananthavady, as part of a collaboration between the two institutions. The lecture was focused on the poem 'Jaago Phir Ek Baar' written by the renowned poet Suryakant Tripathi Nirala.

The primary objective of the lecture was to delve into the profound themes and literary significance of Suryakant Tripathi Nirala's poem 'Jaago Phir Ek Baar.' It aimed to promote a deeper understanding of the poem's context, symbolism, and relevance, as well as to foster an appreciation for Hindi literature and poetry. He discussed various social issues and challenges facing the community, along with the role that each individual can play in addressing them. The talk was not only informative but also inspirational.

Following the lecture, there was an interactive session where attendees had the opportunity to ask questions, share their perspectives, and engage in a meaningful discussion about the poem. Dr. Manoj N. responded to queries and encouraged participants to explore the rich world of Hindi poetry.

The lecture on Suryakant Tripathi Nirala's poem 'Jaago Phir Ek Baar' was a remarkable success in promoting the appreciation of Hindi literature and poetry. It brought together students, faculty, and literature enthusiasts, fostering a deeper understanding of this timeless poem. The collaboration between Mary Matha Arts and Science College, IQAC, and Government College, Mananthavady, played a pivotal role in making this event a success.

Report of the Event

In a jubilant collaboration between the Malayalam Department and the IQAC, the spirit of Malayalam Day echoed through the corridors from November 1 to 7. The week unfolded with a tapestry of literary growth as students engaged in diverse competitions, including the artistry of hyku poem crafting and the playful mastery of tongue twisters.

Adding an enriching layer to the celebration, a seminar titled 'Language and its Changes' was skillfully conducted by VH Nishad, a luminary in Malayalam literature. The college principal bestowed upon him the prestigious ponnada in recognition of his literary contributions.

Venturing beyond the realms of language, Ms. Mercy Rani from the Department of Zoology curated an enlightening exhibition showcasing 38 varieties of traditional paddy seeds. The essence of heritage and biodiversity converged in this vibrant display.

Amidst the festivities, a program named 'Mannorukam' (Preparing Soil) took root, inaugurated by the esteemed Padmasree Cheruvayal Raman. This initiative, aimed at fostering a deeper interest in cultivation among students, unfolded with a fascinating discussion between the students and Padmasree Cheruvayal Raman on the time-honored techniques of traditional farming. In acknowledgment of his invaluable insights, the college principal extended an honor to Padmasree Cheruvayal Raman, amplifying the resonance of a celebration that transcended linguistic and cultural boundaries.
